The Fundamentals of Parenting Coordination

A 16-hour online training program for professionals interested in parenting coordination

December 5 - December 8, 2022

This comprehensive parenting coordination (PC) training is based on the 2019 AFCC Guidelines for Parenting Coordination and the Recommendations for Comprehensive Training of Parenting Coordinators. This program will include a comprehensive overview of the parenting coordination process, including definition of the role, responsibilities, and function of the parenting coordinator; an overview of family dynamics; specific PC strategies, techniques, and interventions; implications of intimate partner violence; cultural considerations; ethical issues; and use of technology.

Participants will learn about the parenting coordinator's scope of authority, strategies to help parents improve cooperation and communication, how to help clients utilize the process, and how to effectively write recommendations or decisions.

The program will take place in two segments per day, two hours each. Recordings of all sessions will be available for registrants.

Learning Objectives

Participants in this training will be able to:

- Define parenting coordination and identify at least three differences between parenting coordination and other conflict resolution processes.
- Describe the multiple roles and functions of the parenting coordinator.
- Identify the main elements of the professional services agreement/contract.
- List at least three phases of the parenting coordination process.
- Explain the impact of separation, divorce, and parental conflict on family dynamics and child well-being.
- Name the four models of coparenting and discuss how they impact children.
- List the steps for structuring the parenting coordination process.
- Discuss how to use outside experts and resources effectively and describe the PC roles and functions on the collaborative/support team.
- Apply two techniques for managing non-compliance, and two techniques for managing the impact of high conflict.
- Recognize when to decline an appointment and when to withdraw from a case.
- Identify when a parenting coordinator should move into the decision-making phase, and prepare and write those decisions.
- Apply procedures for initial and ongoing screening for IPV and implement appropriate safety interventions and protocols.
- Analyze the interplay between AFCC Guidelines for Parenting Coordination, other ethical guidelines, and other professional practice guidelines.
- Explain the difference between explicit and implicit emotional, cognitive, and behavioral biases.
- Identify at least five diversity issues that affect the ability or willingness of coparents to engage in the process and two process modifications.
- Assess the benefits and risks of using technology in the parenting coordination process.

Training Team

Debra K. Carter, PhD is a psychologist and parenting coordinator who has provided training across the globe. She chaired the AFCC Task Force that developed the 2019 Guidelines for Parenting Coordination. She is the author of numerous book chapters and articles including Parenting Coordination: A Practical Guide for Family Law Professionals. She is also the Co-Founder and Training Director of the National Cooperative Parenting Center (NCPC) which offers services to the mental health and legal communities in North America and around the globe and is a former president of the AFCC Florida Chapter.

Robin M. Deutsch, PhD, ABPP is a psychologist and former AFCC President, who served on both the first AFCC task force and the APA task force that developed Guidelines for Parenting Coordination. She has provided training internationally and authored chapters and articles about parenting coordination, as well as other issues related to family conflict. She was the founder and the Director of the Center of Excellence for Children, Families and the Law at the William James College where she developed the Certificate in Child and Family Forensic Issues. From 1990 until 2012 she was on the faculty of Harvard Medical School, most recently as an Associate Clinical Professor of Psychology.

Shely Polak, PhD is a registered social worker and accredited family mediator. She is the director of a private practice specializing in forensic clinical services including parenting plan evaluations, family mediation, voice of the child reports, parenting coordination, and other therapeutic services for children and families impacted by divorce in Toronto, Canada. Shely serves as adjunct faculty at the Faculty of Social Work, University of Toronto. She is a former president of the AFCC – Ontario Chapter.

Matthew J. Sullivan, PhD has been on three AFCC Parenting Coordination task forces and is an internationally recognized author and trainer in this area of practice. He co-chaired the AFCC Task Force on Guidelines for Court-Involved Therapy and served on the American Psychological Association Ethics Committee. He was awarded the 2012 Joseph Drown Award by the California Chapter of AFCC for outstanding service to children and families. He is a past-president of AFCC.

General Information

What's Included?

The registration fee includes live attendance to the program, access to program materials including recordings and handouts from the presentation, and a certificate of attendance. Each attendee's certificate will reflect the training hours viewed live only.

Note: If you are unable to attend live, stay tuned to the AFCC website for a special offer. Recordings of the training programs will be available at a reduced price following the completion of the training programs. Continuing education credit is available only for programs attended live.

What Equipment Do I Need?

AFCC recommends using a desktop or laptop computer to take full advantage of Zoom's capabilities. Not only will this provide a better viewing experience, it will permit access to features not available on the Zoom app on tablets and smartphones. A stable internet connection is imperative for the best viewing experience. If you lose internet service, you may call in to the training (call-in numbers will be included in your confirmation emails) and follow the slides, which are sent in advance of each program. If you need assistance, please call the AFCC office at 608-664-3750.

A Zoom account is not required if you are simply joining Zoom as a participant. It may, however, be simpler to sign on if you have an account. Please note that you must sign on from your own Zoom account. If you use a Zoom account that is registered in someone else's name, your attendance will not be recorded and AFCC will not be able to issue you a certificate of attendance. To ensure you receive proper credit, use a Zoom account associated with the same email address you use for your AFCC profile. You can sign up for a free Zoom account at zoom.us/signup.

Continuing Education Credits

The Fundamentals of Parenting Coordination training program is eligible for 16 hours of continuing education for psychologists. AFCC is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. AFCC maintains responsibility for the program and its content. Association of Family and Conciliation Courts is recognized by the New York State Education Department's State Board for Psychology as an approved provider of continuing education for licensed psychologists #PSY-0190. AFCC will make an application for continuing education credits for Social Workers, and for Parenting Coordinators in Massachusetts. A certificate of attendance will be provided to all attendees. Attendees may use the AFCC Certificate of Attendance to verify attendance and apply for continuing education in their jurisdiction. Each attendee's certificate will reflect the training hours viewed live only. Other professionals may opt to apply for continuing education in their discipline in their jurisdiction by providing their AFCC certificate of attendance, the brochure, and any training materials directly to their accrediting body.

Cancellation Policy

Cancellation Policy Transfer of registration to another person may be made once, at any time without a fee. All requests for refunds must be made in writing. Written notice of cancellation received by fax, sent, and confirmed by email or postmarked by November 21, 2022, will be issued a full refund minus a $75 administrative fee. No refunds will be issued for cancellations received after November 21, 2022. AFCC reserves the right to cancel any training or substitute any presenter should circumstances beyond our control arise.

Time Zones

While it is not possible to schedule all sessions for daylight hours in all countries, recordings will be made available for purchase after the program has concluded. Please contact AFCC at afcc@afccnet.org for further information. The certificate of attendance will only include time logged while attending the initial live session.
