July 3, 2006

Great Debates in Child Custody Evaluation

Interdisciplinary debate teams will address tough questions about the child custody evaluation process and audience members will be invited to participate.

Featuring three exciting plenary debates:

- Are AFCC's Model Standards a Help or Hindrance?
- Are Custody Evaluations a Realistic Option?
- To Recommend or Not to Recommend? Is that the Question?

The Symposium will also feature four pre-conference institutes, twenty workshops and the latest innovations in psychological testing, testifying and cross-examinations, report writing, interviewing skills, assessing domestic violence and more.

Seventh International Congress on Parent Education and Access Programs

October 22-23, 2006
Atlanta, Georgia

Parenting After Separation and Divorce: Emerging Issues for Educators

The Congress will feature an update on the latest international research on children and divorce. Also included:

- The role of technology. Can it enhance or replace face-to-face educational programs?
- Workshops that examine non-traditional families, how to keep audiences engaged, quality control, high conflict families, never-married parents and more.
- Resource and Networking Center: Registrants are invited to bring materials and information about their programs and services to display at no additional charge.

AFCC is an interdisciplinary and international association of professionals dedicated to improving the lives of children and families through the resolution of family conflict.
