The Role of the Court in Society’s Future

AFCC Annual Meeting
May 25–27, 1989
Drake Hotel
Chicago, IL

The Windy City is a flurry of activity in preparation for AFCC’s 26th annual conference. Conference chairperson, Cook County Judge Susan Snow, has put together an impressive host committee that has planned an equally impressive program. Chicago’s Drake Hotel is this city’s Grand Hotel! This symbol of white glove elegance, overlooking Lake Michigan and Michigan Avenue’s “Magnificent Mile,” with its array of shopping, nightlife, dining and culture will be an ideal backdrop as AFCC looks at the issues confronting our courts and the needs of families that have contact with them. See registration form on Newsletter back page.

Complete program information may be obtained from: Susan Fallon, 1901 F Daley Center, Chicago, IL 60602, (312) 443-3037.

New to AFCC?
Reception—Thurs. May 25, 1989
6–7 p.m. Hospitality Suite

If you are new to AFCC or this will be your first conference, you are invited to participate in a reception for new members and others who want to learn more about AFCC. This will be an opportunity to meet members of the Executive Committee, Board of Directors and to take a look at AFCC’s publications and other membership benefits. Join us for free refreshments. We look forward to meeting you!
AIDS Policy Under Consideration

AFCC members John Kydd, Joel Shawn, Stan Cohen and Hon. Frank Orlando joined over 400 delegates at the National Institute of Justice and State Justice Institute conference on "AIDS in the Courts" April 1-5, 1989 in Miami. Conference delegates considered a policy on AIDS prepared by AFCC Board member John Kydd of Seattle. The proposed policy provides that AIDS victims shall not be discriminated against in matters of custody and visitation. This policy has not yet been formally adopted by AFCC but will be a discussion item at the next Board meeting.

Winnipeg Call for Papers

AFCC's 1990 annual meeting will be held in Winnipeg, Canada May 30-June 2. Conference organizers have issued a Call for Papers to be included in the conference theme volume "Challenging Our Assumptions." Previously unpublished papers are requested in the following areas:

- judicial concerns in family law
- concerns of legal practitioners
- mental health issues related to family law
- mediation
- evaluation
- legislative issues
- development and organization of conciliation, mediation and education programs.

Subject proposals should be submitted by August 1, 1989 and include a resume and list of prior publications. Deadline for submission of final papers is December 1, 1989. Submit papers to: Linda Cantelon or Sandra Dean, Family Conciliation, 14th Floor, 405 Broadway Ave., Winnipeg, Manitoba R3C 3L6, (204) 945-6790.

Doing Anything in 1992?

If not, how would you like to host AFCC's annual conference?

It's not too late (or too early!) to contact the Conference Planning Committee and talk with them about hosting a conference in May 1992.

The Conference Planning Committee will be meeting during the Chicago Annual Conference on Wed., May 24, 1989 from 2-5:00 p.m. Drop in and talk with them. They can answer your questions and help you with the planning. Room location will be posted.

For more information, contact Bob Tompkins, Deputy Director, Family Division, 28 Grand Street, Hartford, CT 06106 (203) 568-7973 or Ruth Pearson Urban, Clark County Courthouse, Child Custody Division, 200 S. 3rd, Street, Suite 407, Las Vegas, NV 89155 (702) 455-4185.

Board of Directors Nominations

Do you or do you know someone who would like to be on AFCC's Board of Directors? The Nominations Committee will be preparing a slate of nominees and would like to hear from you. Board members will be elected at the membership meeting in Chicago.

Please send your nominations and a resume to Hon. Betty Barteau, Superior Court #3, Room 406, City-County Bldg., Indianapolis, IN 46204 (317) 236-4223.

Member News

Hon. Betty Barteau is chairperson-elect of the Faculty Council of the Indiana Law School College in Reno, Nevada. Judge Barteau has taught Family Law at the college since 1978.

Retired Judge Marjorie Bowker of Edmonton, Alberta, Canada received considerable attention with her 40 page analysis of the proposed free trade agreement between Canada and the US. Published in booklet form, "On Guard for Thee," sold over 40,000 copies and provided a critical analysis of the free trade agreement. The booklet was hailed by the Liberal party and provided considerable momentum for those opposed to the agreement. The agreement was passed in the November elections.

Hon. Sylvia Cartwright was recently appointed Chief District Court Judge in New Zealand. Judge Cartwright has attended several AFCC meetings and met with members of AFCC's post-conference exchange with the New Zealand Family Court.

Judge Cartwright replaces retiring Judge Peter Trapski, also a member and participant in AFCC activities. Best wishes to Judge Trapski; congratulations to Judge Cartwright.

Hon. Irwin Cantor, Phoenix, AZ was honored at AFCC's Southwest Regional Conference. Judge Cantor is retiring from the bench after 26 years. He is a former President of AFCC, a founder of the Arizona chapter and an author of several publications on family law. His wife, Elana, practices family law in Maricopa County. The Cantors are looking forward to visits with their children and downhill skiing.

Linda Hahn, Director of Family Court Services of Dallas County, Texas was featured on US Today TV and in the December issue of Del Magazine. Dallas' seven Family Court Judges refer custody issues to mediation unless there is a request for emergency relief or a case involves violence or abuse. Courts may order mediation of property issues. Litigants attend an orientation program and view a film on mediation before meeting with the mediator. Each mediation averages six hours and is confidential.

Hugh McSlae, Director of the LA Family Court Services, will be the featured presenter at two conferences sponsored by Law Society of London and the Standing Committee for Interdisciplinary Cooperation in Family Proceedings. He will then be traveling to Denmark where he will be making a similar presentation and visiting with Henrik Andrup, a presenter at AFCC's Long Beach conference.

Ellen Rudolph recently served as a member of the Mediation Advisory Group convened to submit recommendations for the implementation of mediation in special education. The Advisory group served in cooperation with the Indiana Division of Special Education and the Task Force on Education for the Handicapped.

Hon. Herbert Walton of Johnson County, Kansas, was awarded the "Healer" award by the National Council for Children's Rights at their third annual conference for his 25 years on the bench and his support of local educational programs for divorcing parents. These programs provide information to help parents and their children adjust to the divorce and communicate about their children. Judge Walton has been leader in the field of family law on local, state, national levels.
Regional News

Northcentral—The Northcentral Regional meeting will be held September 21-23, 1989, at the Embassy Suites in Indianapolis. Regional Coordinator and Conference chair Ellen Rudder writes that the theme will be “Impacting the Abusive/Addictive Client: A Professional Perspective.” The conference format will be a combination of plenary presentations and a unique new twist to the conventional workshop presentations.

Plans for the 1990 NC Regional and mid-year Board meeting are already in the works. This meeting will be held in Kansas City, Kansas at the elegant Country Club Mall September 27-29, 1990. Mark your calendars now! Further information on both conferences is available from Ellen Rudder, Domestic Relations Counseling Bureau, City-County Bldg., Room 742, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204 (317) 236-3858.

Northeast—Although not fully confirmed, it appears that the 1989 regional meeting will be held in the Boston area the first week of December. Advance information may be obtained from Tim Sallus 28 Grand St., Hartford, CT 06106 (203) 566-8187 or Aza Butler, 801 Dairy Rd. Parkton, MD 21120 (301) 583-5678.

Northwest—The first Northwest Regional Conference was held January 5-7, 1989 in Seattle. Co-sponsored with the Washington Family Law Section, the conference theme “Northwest Families: Taking on the Challenge” provided the backdrop for an interdisciplinary and multi-cultural dialogue. The 100 registrants were unanticipated by Seattle’s first snow in five years as they shared exciting program ideas and discussed the needs of Northwest families. Conference chair, Marjory Matthews Hellman, and her committee did a superb job! Jim Dudlay, Director of the Multnomah Courthouse Services, has invited the NW Regional Conference to Portland, OR. Although dates are not yet confirmed, it is anticipated that this meeting will be in early 1990. Contact Jim Dudlay, Family Services, Multnomah County Courthouse, 1021 SW 4th Ave, Portland, OR 97204 (503) 248-3189 or Marjory Hellman, King County Courthouse, Third & James W364, Seattle, WA 98104 (206)583-4690.

Southwest—The first Southeast Regional meeting was held in Orlando, FL March 2-4, 1989 in cooperation with the Florida Dispute Resolution Center. The program was designed to highlight the intensity of interest in Florida’s alternative dispute resolution programs and to feature other programs in surrounding states. AFCC Secretary Bob Tompkins’ luncheon presentation on the “Lighter side of mediation” had everyone moring for a copy. While Regional Coordinators Alene Hubert and Marti Bonneau recover from the pressures and uncertainties of this first regional meeting, AFCC is eager to receive news from others in this region. Contact T. Alene Hubert 507 SE 6th 2nd Floor, Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33301 (305) 765-4012 or Marti Bonneau, Family Mediation Service, IV Judicial Circuit, 1233-8th St., Jacksonville, FL 32206 (904) 630-0987.

Southwest—Rumor has it that a regional meeting is being planned for 1990 in Albuquerque, New Mexico. For more information contact Pat Dixon, Maricopa County Conciliation Court, 201 W. Jefferson, Phoenix, AZ 85003, (602) 262-3266 or Linda Kerr, Pinellas County Conciliation Court, 111 W. Congres, Tucson, AZ, 85711 (602) 792-6344.

Northcentral—The first Northcentral regional meeting and mid-year AFCC Board meeting will be held October 19-21, 1989 at the Dallas Sheraton. The conference theme will be “Healthy Resolutions to Divorce Issues.” Contact Linda Hahn, Old Courthouse, 3rd Floor, Dallas TX (214) 749-8674.

Regional meeting are not limited to members of the geographic area. Each region welcomes the participation of all AFCC members and others interested in this field.

Arizona Chapter Spring Seminar

The Arizona Chapter will follow up its successful regional conference with a Spring Seminar and Membership meeting May 11, 1989 in Phoenix. Professor William Hodges, University of Colorado, will be the keynote presenter on “Chronic Problems of Parent Access.” Pima County Commissioner Margaret Houghton will moderate the audience response. Further information may be obtained from Joel Bankes, Chapter President-elect, (602) 256-5701.

Kansas Holds First Chapter Meeting

Over 50 participants attended the first Kansas AFCC chapter meeting March 17-18, 1989 at the Doubletree Hotel in Overland Park. The conference theme, "A New Look at Child Custody Conflict and Child Sexual Abuse" featured Ann Milne, AFCC Executive Director speaking on "Child Custody Conflict—The Story Behind the Story" and Robert Benjamin, AFCC Board member from St. Louis, who conducted a montage on child sexual abuse and Kansas Chief Justice Robert H. Miller, who spoke on the status of family law in Kansas. The Kansas Supreme Court established an Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee last year. This committee has now completed its study of the use of alternative dispute resolution. A report will be issued soon regarding the committee’s findings and recommendations regarding the establishment of mediation programs and the qualifications of mediators. Chapter meeting participants were eager to share their program ideas and discussed how to further interdisciplinary cooperation in Kansas. Chapter officers include President David Woodbury, Vice-President Dan Claborn, Secretary Carol Roeder-Esser, Treasurer Gary Ketcher and AFCC Board member Judge Herbert Walton. Kansas will be requesting full chapter status at the Board meeting in Chicago. Based on the enthusiasm and leadership shown at this first chapter meeting, AFCC will be well-represented in Kansas. As a matter of fact—Kansas City will be the site of AFCC’s Northcentral regional and mid year Board meeting in September 1990!
Family Mediation Canada

The fourth annual conference co-sponsored by Family Mediation Canada, the Mediation Development Association of British Columbia and the Yukon Public Legal Education Association will be held October 26-28, 1989 in Vancouver, British Columbia. Those interested in presenting are invited to submit a program proposal for a half or full day workshop, breakfast presentation or a proceedings paper. Abstracts should be no more than 250 words and indicate objectives of presentation, whether intended for experienced or inexperienced mediators, key points to be covered and how the presentation will provide for audience participation.

Send to: Marla Burdine, Conference Coordinator, British Columbia Institute of Mediation, 1180 West 4th Ave., Vancouver, BC V6R 4J5, (604) 228-9771.

ABA Annual Meeting
To Focus On Dispute Resolution

Resolving Disputes in Pacific Ways is the title of the American Bar Association's annual conference August 3-10, 1989 in Honolulu, Hawaii. AFCC member Joel Shaw has coordinated a three hour workshop on the use of court-based mediation in domestic relations matters. AFCC participants will include Hon. Betty Vitousek, an AFCC past-President; Ann Milne, AFCC Executive Director; Maxine Baker Jackson, LA Conciliation Court; Isolina Ricci, Coordinator, CA Administrative Office of the Courts and Professor David Chandler, Univ. Hawaii. This will be an excellent opportunity to further educate members of the bar about AFCC and court-connected services.

Mediation Video

Mediation: For Your Children's Sake was awarded first place in the Education category by the Tucson Community Cable Corporation. The video is shown three times weekly on cable and is used by the Tucson Conciliation Court at the mediation orientation sessions. The video can be purchased for $11.35 (including postage). Make checks payable to Superior Court of Pima County and send to Family Center of the Conciliation Court, 177 N. Church #400, Tucson, AZ 85701.

Parent-Child Mediation Manual

The Institute of Judicial Administration has made available the first comprehensive collection of information about parent-child mediation. The manual was assembled by AFCC members Margaret Shaw, Director of IJA and founder of New York City's PINS Mediation Program and Patrick Phear, Director of Family Mediation Associates of Cambridge and former chair of the Advisory Committee of the Children's Hearing Project and provides useful information, strategies and advice about many aspects of planning and implementing a parent-child mediation program. The manual may be purchased for $39 from the Institute of Judicial Administration, One Washington Square Village, NY, 10012.
